Scope and Content / Abstract:
Collection contains documents related to Ethel Fletcher's tenure as teacher at the Sylvia School in Douglas county, Colorado, including her teacher contracts with the school district dated 1942 through 1944. It also contains a Certificate fo Service presented to L. E. Fletcher by the Colorado Citizen's Defense Corps in 1945.

Teacher contracts cover 1942-1944 and are for school district 21 (South Platte Area). Also included in the collection is a "transportation agreement" allowing Mrs. Fletcher to pick up some of the children for school. Business cards from the Deckers Resort are also included in the collection. The papers are in excellent condition and easy to read.
